BREAD AND CIRCUSES

Now is the time for all good folk to come to Hay for a party. For a real change, let's talk of dreams, of stories and imagination. Let's explore the writer's realm of truths and language and of private, secret worlds. Let's welcome big ideas from people who think differently to ourselves, and champion the need to open minds. This is the art of the impossible. And it comes with food and drink and music, laughter, dance and friends. Festivals and feasting really matter. Come on your own, come with friends, or come with family; come shine or rain, we'll be here for adventures and stories. Please join us.

@HAYFESTIVAL

There'll be quite a lot of news in the run-up to the festival. Please follow the website and our twitter feed for updates.

SOUND OF THE BASKERVILLES

Breaking bands and amped-up DJs will be playing til 2am in our new late club nights at Clyro Court. Please see hayfestival.com/sotb.

OXFAM

Please support our charity partners and bring them a bag of books* you can spare. Donors will be given a comp ticket that may be used for any event that's not sold out on the day. Full details at hayfestival.com/oxfam.

TRAVEL

Please join our Greenprint campaign and use the special shuttle buses for local journeys, and share cars when you can. Full details at hayfestival.com/travel.

FAMILIES

Hay Fever and the new hf2 programme for teens run through half-term week and plays for all ages. Giffords Circus are back with their new show at Hay Castle. Details at hayfestival.com/hayfever.

HAY

Hay is a magical town. Please support our shops and businesses whilst you're here. Recycle the bags* and fill them with books, clothes and crafts from Hay going home...

Happy Springtime

The Faber Academy

Writing Fiction: Getting Started at The Guardian Hay Festival

Jill Dawson, Tobias Hill and Jasper Fforde present the Faber Academy in association with The Guardian Hay Festival 2010

Wednesday 26 May–Friday 28 May 2010, 10AM–5PM
Course cost: £375 (including VAT)

Over the three days Jill Dawson, Tobias Hill and guest tutor Jasper Fforde address the difficult business of starting to write. This lively course offers inspiration and guidance on the matter of getting started with fiction – whether you are an absolute beginner or have started and ground to a halt. The exercises on this course will encourage imagination, spontaneity and free self-expression paired with the complementary need for an understanding of structure and the goals of story-telling. The tutors will also examine strategies to overcome the central problems that face many new writers – the fear of the blank page, the voice of the internal critic and the need for discipline.

The course includes:

- Three days' intensive tuition
- Two complimentary tickets to Guardian Hay Festival events
- A daily artisan lunch
- A detailed course pack, including hotel and restaurant recommendations
- A special discount off Faber books
- A complimentary Moleskine Notebook

The Faber Academy is an exciting new programme of creative writing courses and live events from Faber and Faber, devised and delivered by the foremost practitioners in their fields. There are 30 places available on this course. Book soon to avoid disappointment.

HAY FESTIVAL
29th May - 5th June

HAY FEVER

hayfestival.com/hayfever
01497 822 629

Welcome to HAY FEVER

Our half-term programme of events, activities and workshops for tots, teens and inbetweens has grown again all thanks to you. With over 150 things for you to do this year there's far too much to mention in this teeny-tiny space, but we hope you have an amazing time on site whether you're chilling out with a book (or three!), picnicking with friends or meeting your literary heroes.

2010 sees Hay Fever go international with the legendary Morris Gleitzman all the way from Oz, Newberry Medalist Sharon Creech from the US of A and Spaniard Carlos Ruiz Zafón headlining our new teen strand, hf2, while firm favourites Jacqueline Wilson, Andy Stanton, Charlie Higson and Cressida Cowell return with exciting news to share from their travels away from Hay.

A big thank you to Quentin Blake, our official illustrator for 2010, for his witty take on Hay Fever. Make sure you take a look at the What Are You Like? exhibition in the Book Sanctuary, which has been curated by Quentin's very own House of Illustration. We would also like to thank all the artists, publishers, sponsors and volunteers (especially those required to don a costume or two!) who make Hay Fever what it is.

Comedy from Tim Minchin, Rob Brydon, Ross Noble and Idiots of Ants.

Music from Laura Marling, Bonobo and Orquesta Buena Vista Social Club.

Talks from Philip Pullman, Stephen Fry, Shane Williams and Nigel Mansell. hayfestival.com

Hit the Hay with a good book from Oxfam.

If you need a break from the festival hullabaloo, settle in with a world-changing read from Oxfam. We've got stacks of poverty-busting second-hand books for sale at our festival bookshop (stand 12-15).

We're not just selling books, we're collecting them too. If you've got any you no longer need, drop them off in our big book container when you visit us at the festival. We'll use them to raise money and fight poverty.

And to continue the fun, look out for Oxfam Bookfest in July.

Be Humankind  Oxfam

Oxfam is a registered charity in England and Wales (110 202918) and Scotland (SC0310942). Oxfam GB is a member of Oxfam International.

Oxfam Bookfest 3 - 17 July 2010

Thank you for all your books and your amazing support last year at Hay, which raised over £25,000. Hot on the heels of last year's collaboration to launch our first nationwide book festival – Oxfam Bookfest – Oxfam is delighted to announce that we are again collaborating with the Hay Festival to host star-studded events in prestigious venues across the UK during this year's festival.

Oxfam Bookfest 2010 takes place from 3 to 17 July. From Plymouth to Argyll and from Carmarthen to Cambridge, Oxfam shops will host a myriad events, competitions, auctions and local family fun. Watch out for the Poet Laureate in Manchester, the big book fair in Birmingham and Barbara Nadel in Hebden Bridge, to name but a few. Oxfam Bookfest will also host such luminaries as Joss Ackland, William Dalrymple, Eoin Colfer, Cressida Cowell, and even Bob the Builder, courtesy of Hay, and you are invited to join the party in July.

To find out more about Oxfam Bookfest events in your area see oxfam.org.uk/bookfest.

Where you see the  logo, the artists appearing at Hay this year will also be appearing as part of Oxfam Bookfest in July.

For more information about how to buy tickets for these events see hayfestival.com/oxfam.

More events will be announced at hayfestival.com/oxfam

From hardbacks to hardwoods

The vast sustainably managed forests of North America, provides a range of timber species for stunning interiors and beautiful furniture.

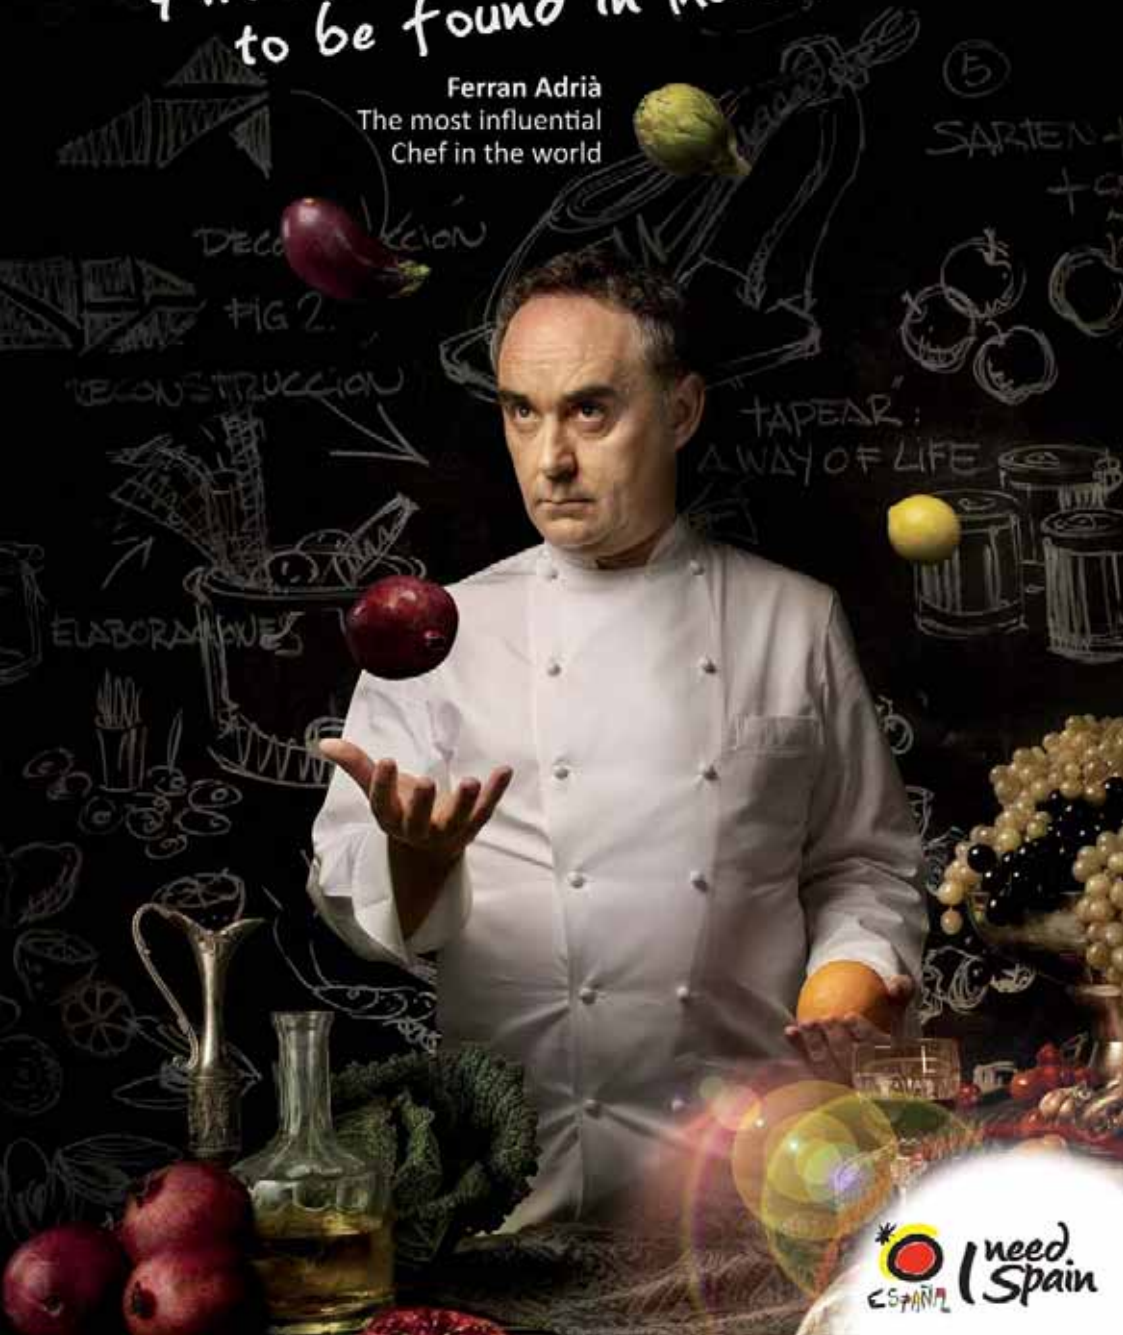

If you would like to know more about sustainable American hardwoods and how they can enhance your home, download a copy of the new American hardwood species guide from our website www.americanhardwood.org.

Look out for the American red oak stage furniture and American tulipwood seating at this year's Festival.

* Art here is not only to be found in museums

Quality of life

Why do special places matter? Who owns culture?
How should you present a country house?
Should we campaign for happiness?

These are just a few of the questions we will be asking at Hay this year. We believe that, in the end, it is stimulating experiences – not wealth or status – that make life worth living. Not everyone will agree. Join the debate, with an event a day throughout the festival and a glittering line up of speakers:

Stephen Bayley, Alain de Botton, Madeleine Bunting, Monty Don, Jerry Hall, Simon Jenkins, Mark Jones, Richard Layard, Geoff Mulgan, Peter Noble, Francis Prior, Fiona Reynolds, Charles Saumarez Smith, Simon Schama, Anthony Seldon. (Subjects and speakers may change.)

Come to our stand for books, membership and information about local attractions, our stunning guided Begwns walk and exclusive evening at Berrington Hall.

The Festival Exhibition REPLACED

An exhibition of new works by Aine Venables exploring ideas of belonging, identity and location. Using maps, dust covers and vintage graphics alongside traditional printmaking techniques to create a series of exciting and individual mixed media pieces.

Please come and meet the artist in the exhibition at Richard Booth's Bookshop, from 6.30pm to 7.30pm, Saturday 29 May to Saturday 5 June.

All work is for sale.

MAKE HAY

Welcome to our first series of creative master-classes hosted by our exhibitors. The sessions will be held in the Hay Fever Space and Richard Booth's Bookshop.

Great English Outdoors

Hay Fever Space
Friday 28 May 7pm–8pm
Friday 4 June 7pm–8pm

The history of Welsh blankets. Athene English, owner of The Great English Outdoors and passionate textiles collector, will be giving an informal talk on her favourite subject. She will be bringing along wonderful examples of old Welsh textiles from her private collection for you to handle and enjoy. Please bring along your own Welsh blankets, and Athene will give you their history and values. Tickets £5.

To book please call 01497 821 205 or email info@greatenglishoutdoors.co.uk

Yvette Jelfs

Hay Fever Space
Sunday 30 May 6pm–9pm

Yvette Jelfs was brought up in the Welsh borders and makes hats in her house only a few miles from Hay-on-Wye. If you own an Yvette Jelfs hat you are in good company: ladies from Christina Aguilera to the Duchess of Cornwall own her pieces. For those who cannot make the workshop there is a place for a couple of students each day at the shop area onsite. We look forward to finding a style to suit you. Tickets £45.

To book please call 01315 568 388 or email yvette@yvettejelfs.com

Rachel Hazell

Hay Fever Space
Monday 31 May 6pm–8.30pm

Books of your own: an intensely productive evening of bookart, starting with simple folded structures and culminating in a linen-stitched soft leather binding. Create satisfying textual and pictorial content using rubber stamps and collage too. There will be time to learn more about the Travelling Bookbinder's longer courses and future exhibitions. All materials provided. Tickets £55.

To book call 07884 184 800 or visit www.bazelldesignsbooks.co.uk

Merchant & Mills

Hay Fever Space
Thursday 3 June 6pm–9pm
Saturday 5 June 6pm–9pm

As an introduction to making your own clothes, join this workshop and make a beautiful Merchant & Mills bag. Together we will make a simple, classic Shopper bag from oilskin, with handles in quality British saddle leather and nickel buckles. The course includes full instructions on all techniques and may be the inspiration for a whole new wardrobe you can make yourself. All materials provided. Tickets £45.

To book please call 07776 120 903 or email carolyn@merchantandmills.com

Richard Booth's Bookshop Classes

Richard Booth's Bookshop (off site)
Tuesday 1 June, 11.15am–4.30pm and
Wednesday 2 June, 11.15am–4.30pm

Judith Bigham and Cecily Patterson hail from Portland, Oregon, where they professionally make art and write, respectively. They've been teaching together for years to much acclaim from school students as well as adults. Teens and adults are invited to join them throughout the festival for a variety of unique writing, bookmaking, collage and art classes in the beautiful surrounds of Richard Booth's Bookshop on Lion Street. All materials provided. Tickets £30.

To book please go to www.judithbigham.com for details

Sky Arts Studio

Join us in the Sky Arts Studio area where you can relax and browse through the variety of fascinating books that have been showcased on The Book Show this year. From there take the Sky Arts Path to discover intriguing spaces around the festival, each with a different creative experience for you to enjoy. The path will finish back at the studio area, where you can contribute your inspirations and thoughts in a collective Sky Arts book. The first 200 people to complete the route will receive a limited edition bag, so be sure to join us early.

Sky Rainforest Rescue

28 May–1 June

Come and visit the Sky Rainforest Rescue experience and enjoy the thrill of the Amazon. The Amazon rainforest is a unique natural habitat, home to thousands of amazing plants and has one of the highest diversities of life on Earth. Sky Rainforest Rescue is a three-year campaign in partnership between Sky and WWF to help save 1 billion trees in the rainforest of Acre in northwest Brazil. To kick-start this project, our aim is to raise £2 million from the British public over the next three years, and Sky will match it to our campaign total of £4 million. Giving just £20 could help save 1,000 trees. Come and see why it's important to preserve our vibrant rainforest.

Sky Arts Studio Tours

31 May–3 June

Learn more about the magic of television. 20 minute tours from 2.30pm in the Sky Arts Studio. Sign up in the Sky Arts Studio area for your chance to read the auto cue from Mariella's chair. Available to

Hay Fever Space

Throughout the festival the Hay Fever Space is a welcoming area for families to relax with a book, sip a smoothie or get busy with crafts between 10am and 5pm. Under 10s are invited to join Nia and Hannah in the Activity Zone for free organised crafting every day in their beach-themed area.* So whether you have a pirate in the making or a mini-mermaid twiddling their thumbs, there is plenty to get up to in between your events.

Escape all the hustle and bustle of the festival in the Book Sanctuary. Share a story from the Hay Stack Library, which is jam-packed with fiction and non-fiction for all ages. Take a peek at the tremendous illustrations by famous folk in What Are You Like? – an exhibition based on a Victorian parlour game that asks you to describe yourself with images of your favourite things. Then play 'Guess who drew...' to discover the famous faces behind these unique self-portraits and go on to create your own for the public gallery.

*Fully equipped with ship, sand, seaweed and the odd shanty.

the first 10 people to sign up that day. Limited availability.

Pembertons

The Festival bookshop is where authors appearing at the Festival will be signing books after their event. Open from 9am to 8pm daily.

Step into the Goody, Goody Gumdrops Café to refuel with a juice and a snack-a-roo. Bottle warmers, high chairs and small tables make this a perfect downtime spot for families. And don't forget to Scribble your love for Hay Fever in the giant book with the giant pencils.

Imagination Station. Hay Fever's very own venue space, will be full of all kinds of wonderful events, workshops and parties to which you are very much invited. Take a look at the programme to see what's on here and when.

Wiggly Wigglers

Just outside the Hay Fever Space is the Wiggly Wigglers Garden full of chickens and honeysuckle. Come and find out about bees, composting, worms and veggies from the tip-top Wiggly Wigglers staff. Keep an eye on the Wiggly blackboards for more info during the festival.

FOOD & DRINK

Festival Food Hall

Locally produced delicious food to feast on.

Neal's Yard Creamery

Is a small dairy in the Golden Valley 8 miles from Hay-on-Wye. We make soft goat's and cow's milk cheeses, yoghurts and crème fraîche. We are providing festival-goers with a choice of: grilled Ragstone goats cheese salad, a ploughman's platter, or a selection of local cheeses and biscuits.

Welsh Venison Centre

Local farmers, butchers and retailers with a farm and farm shop overlooking Llangorse Lake. Delivering produce direct from producer to consumer in a sustainable environment, Welsh Venison Centre are delighted to offer Hay-goers the healthy venison option and will be open every day with varied menu. The farm shop is well worth a visit.

Truly Scrumptious

We will be providing delicious Norwegian Waffles and freshly squeezed fruit juices and smoothies, all made from fresh ingredients using organic and Fair Trade fruit. We hope to provide a tasty treat for kids of all ages.

Lotty's Pure Indulgence Bar

Forget your waistlines, just let your taste buds dance as you indulge yourself at Lotty's. Among the many delights waiting to tempt you is our wicked home-made Belgian chocolate brownie...hot and gooey and dripping with thick cream.

The Granary

As always, the Granary are serving their great vegetarian menu of soups and other delicious dishes.

The Market Garden

A great selection of freshly made salads and take-away snacks for the health conscious festival-goer: pick and mix your own combination of leaves, pasta, vegetables, fruits, nuts, seeds and other yummy salad ingredients, and enjoy in the sun.

Foodhall Bar

We look forward to providing you with a full bar, serving real ales, lagers and ciders, and helping to make your festival experience one to remember!

Shepherds

Irresistible ice creams and sublime sorbet, all freshly made in the Golden Valley. Don't bleat about the bush. Flock to Shepherds.

Cafédirect

Wherever you are on site, you're never far away from a gorgeous cup of award-winning Cafédirect coffee, tea or hot chocolate. Refuel after events with an espresso or get lost with a book and a silky cappuccino. You can also visit the Cafédirect container house near to the Wiggy Wigglers Garden.

Capital Cuisine

A modern contemporary menu with a flavour of Wales, previously the Blas restaurant: steaks, fish and more great hot dishes with fantastic Welsh tapas to graze on in the sun. Capital Cuisine looks forward to welcoming you.

Ascaris Café

Open from 9am daily, with a full range of drinks, snacks and meals served until 9pm. Reservations taken for evening meals – call 01432 265 147 or 07964 198 690.

Cafédirect Friends Café

Central to the Hay Festival community, the Cafédirect Friends Café is a great place to relax, meet old friends and make new ones too. Come by and enjoy a cup of award-winning gourmet coffee, tea or drinking chocolate. You can also visit the Cafédirect Container House on site, where you can taste the Cafédirect range of single origins and choose your favourite. Cafédirect – We are the Growers and You can Taste it.

Honey Dew Bar

Relax and enjoy the atmosphere at the Honey Dew Bar and beer garden. Try a complementary sample of our wonderful Honey Dew and find out for yourself why Honey Dew is Britain's best-selling organic beer. Along with Honey Dew, cask Fuller's London Pride will be available to buy as well as lager, cider, wines and soft drinks.

Xtreme Organix

Using organically-farmed meat from Maes-y-Garn Farm, only a mile from Hay Festival, for breakfasts, homemade burgers, stir-fries and wraps, and chilled drinks from local producers.

EXHIBITORS

1. Art Meets Matter

Art Meets Matter has been a significant fixture at the Hay Festival since 2006 with award-winning designs based on Penguin paperbacks, as well as Faber and Faber poetry, A-Z maps and many more fun things. In our constant mission to bring something special to Hay visitors, this year it's the turn of the new Penguin Bookchase board game. You've tried the original – now try the Penguin version. Great for all ages. Warning: much head-scratching may ensue!

2. Bowie Gallery @ Hay Festival

Showing the very best of contemporary ceramics and jewellery from the UK, this nationally acclaimed gallery relocates from its premises in the heart of Hay to the Festival site. Treat yourself to something special to remind you of your visit to the Festival and take a little bit of Hay home with you.

3. Zebra Designs

The Hay-on-Wye design and interiors studio showcases a new range of fitted bookcases, tables and household items. Traditional bookshelving with design-led tables, innovative children's furniture and the unique utility kitchen. Come and visit us at our stand.

4. Yvette Jelfs

Milliner Yvette Jelfs has been designing couture, hand-made hats for over 25 years. Based in her workshop in Herefordshire, she also has a boutique in Edinburgh's New Town and capsule collections in London. Joining Yvette on her stand this year is Rachel Hazell. Read Make Love Books is Rachel Hazell's motto. In a flurry of words and found papers she will be creating bespoke bibliophilic specialities, selling limited editions and box-framed bookworks.

5. Merchant & Mills

Merchant & Mills was formed to return the traditional skill of couture dress-making to its rightful owners; you, the public. At Hay we launch our superb, easy-to-follow dress patterns, finest fabrics and notions to make your couture dreams come true. To make your life even easier, we have five beautifully unique dresses (we understand how hard choosing can be), and best of all, you can try them on first. Patterns for you to make, to fit you perfectly, and if you don't know how, we'll teach you.

6. Great English Outdoors

For the second year running The Great English Outdoors is on site at the Festival, selling old Welsh blankets, textiles and handmade leather goods; as well as useful but beautiful objects for the home and garden. The shop with a soul, you can buy from us with confidence, everything is ethically sourced. Traditional skills and craftsmanship interpreted for a 21st century audience. Visit our stand or the shop in Castle Street.

7. Flow

New to the festival site this year, Flow bring a beautiful selection of clothing for men and women from their Castle Street premises in Hay; ranges from People Tree, howies, Nice Things, Container, Sea Salt Whitestuff, Crew and Saltwater.

8. Countryside Council for Wales

Visit the Countryside Council for Wales' stand for free booklets and posters on Wales' outstanding natural heritage. Our staff will be on hand to answer your questions on recreation opportunities in the countryside and along the coast and to chat about nature conservation and landscape protection work in the face of today's challenges.

9. CADW

Cadw is the Welsh Assembly Government's historic environment service, working for an accessible and well-protected historic environment for Wales. Cadw is a Welsh word meaning 'to keep' or 'to protect'.

10. Index on Censorship

International in outlook, outspoken in comment, award-winning magazine Index on Censorship is the only publication dedicated to freedom of expression. Its contributors include Nadine Gordimer, Bernard-Henri Lévy, Timothy Garton-Ash, Geoffrey Robertson, Ai Weiwei and Jacqueline Rose. Visit the Index stand at the festival for a special subscription rate and information about our work. For the latest stories on free speech and for details on Index events and activities, go to indexoncensorship.org.

11. ProExport

Colombian Caribbean jewel, Cartagena, has been home to Hay Festival Cartagena since 2006. This amazing country offers a variety of landscapes from the snow-capped peaks of the Andes Mountains, to the beaches of the Caribbean Sea, the exuberance of the Amazon, and the arid deserts of La Guajira. Come and visit us at our stand for more information.

12-15. Oxfam

We love books. It's no surprise then that we jump for joy when people find time to donate a book or two. At Hay, we're aiming high. Any book will do: racy, pacy, or a slow-burner. We want the lot. So turn your fiction into action and donate some books right here at Hay. Visit us at our stand.

16. Christ College, Brecon

One of Wales' most successful independent schools. A co-educational boarding and day school for 11 to 18-year-olds, in the heart of the Brecon Beacons National Park.

17. Book Bus

The Book Bus believes that every child should have the opportunity to discover the hidden treasures that books contain. Our aim is to reveal the value of literacy by instilling a lifelong love of reading in young children. Using the spoken word, artwork, puppet-making and a host of other media, we attempt to bring to life the worlds within storybooks. The Book Bus provides a mobile service and actively promotes literacy to underprivileged communities in Zambia and Ecuador.

18. UK Youth

In November 2009 UK Youth, Futurelab and St George's House supported by the RSA launched Vision not Division, a campaign to gain greater recognition for the value of non-formal learning. Come and meet the UK Youth team on site, find out more about Vision not Division and sign up to the Positive About Youth campaign. Young people are invited to take part in a range of non-formal learning activities, including film-workshops, bike rides and creative writing. For more details and to sign up for these free workshops visit us on the stand or at positiveaboutyouth.org/hay-festival.

19. The London Library

Drop by the London Library stand to learn more about this unique literary oasis, pick up a copy of the Library's magazine or simply chat to staff about benefits of being a member. Hay's 2010 schedule is full of London Library members, from Tom Stoppard to Kazuo Ishiguro, so you never know who you might bump into. londonlibrary.co.uk.

20. The Balvenie

The Balvenie is a unique range of single malts produced in Speyside in the Scottish Highlands. The exceptional quality of The Balvenie Single Malt is due to the fact that The Balvenie Distillery retains and nurtures a high level of craftsmanship that other malt whisky producers no longer employ: nowhere else will you find a distillery that still grows its own barley, still malts in its own traditional floor maltings, still employs coopers to tend all the casks and a coppersmith to maintain the stills. Ambassadors of The Balvenie will be at Hay this year to sample various expressions and to conduct a number of formal tutored tastings – please see The Balvenie staff for details. Bottles of The Balvenie will also be available for purchase. For further information visit our website thebalvenie.com.

21. National Trust

Come and chillax at the National Trust stand for information on our Hay platform events programme, our 'away day' walk in the Cambrian mountains and our soirée at Berrington Hall; browse National Trust books, find out about the landscapes and houses you can visit in Wales and western England and buy or renew your membership.

22. TfL

TfL is delighted to bring its Cycle Hire roadshow to the Hay Festival. This bicycle-sharing scheme for short journeys in central London launches this summer, providing a greener and healthier way to travel. Be amongst the first to view the scheme up close.

23. Garden in Transition

The permaculture garden at this year's festival is an attempt to create something beautiful and useful through good design, very little financial outlay, lots of creativity and lots of community input. It is a joint project involving students on Sarah Pugh's permaculture design course in Bristol, and Transition Hay-on-Wye. Contact tthayonwye@gmail.com.

Cafédirect

Discover the award-winning taste of Machu Picchu and Kilimanjaro coffee at the Cafédirect 'up-cycled' Container House. Designed by Wayne Hemingway, the Cafédirect house is the perfect place to chill out, try some delicious coffee and enter the competition to win a year's supply of coffee.

Culture Cymru

Wales – wonderful literature, great places to visit, fabulous food and world-class artists. Take a look, join in the activities and discover more about our amazing country. The Culture Cymru stand is a partnership between the Welsh Assembly Government, Arts Council of Wales, the National Library of Wales, Academi, Welsh Books Council and Wales, The True Taste.

Spanish Tourist Office

Spain is a land of heritage; nature, art, architecture, gastronomy. Visit us to find out about Hay Festival Segovia and many other wonderful cultural destinations.

Hay Festival Shop

Situated in the Box Office and full of fabulous festival merchandise.

Hay & District Chamber of Commerce

Volunteers from the Hay & District Chamber of Commerce will be on site from 10am to 6pm daily with all you need to know about Hay and the surrounding area.

Carol Peace

Many thanks to sculptor Carol Peace for the kind loan of her three beautiful sculptures for our Festival Gardens. Her work can be seen in the Bowie Gallery on site and at carolpeace.com.

OFF-SITE

Festival Exhibition

Replaced – an exhibition of new works by Aine Venables exploring ideas of belonging, identity and location. Using maps, dust covers and vintage graphics alongside traditional printmaking techniques to create a series of exciting mixed media pieces. All work is for sale.

Richard Booth's Bookshop, 44 Lion Street, 6.30–7.30pm, Saturday 29 May to Saturday 5 June.

Fair on the Square, 28–31 May, Hay Market Square

Children's workshops from 10am till noon. Come and make a hobby-horse, mask or puppet from recycled materials. From noon to 6pm enjoy great live music for free! An eclectic line-up of some of the very best live bands from miles around. Evening session from 6–10pm showing daily screen highlights from the Hay Festival. Plus Joe May, street performer, clown and fool, beautiful old-fashioned swingboat rides and a unique ten-day sculpture trail (29 May–6 June) running from the Hay Festival Site all over town and incorporating many professional local artists.

Sky Shuttle Bus Service

Avoid the queues and choose the greener way to travel – leave your car at home this year and take the Sky Shuttle Bus. Sky will be running bus services on three routes this year linking up local villages to the festival site. The buses will call at stops including Llanigon, Glasbury, Llowes, Clyro, Clifford, Cusop and Brecon. Due to popular demand, we'll also be running some new early morning and late evening bus services. To find out more go to hayfestival.com/shuttlebus. The shuttle bus is generously provided by Sky. Day tickets are just £2, payable as a charitable donation to Sky Rainforest Rescue (see sky.com/rainforestrescue for more information).

PLAUTUS

WEALTH. WHAT'S IT TO YOU?

Titus Maccius Plautus took great delight in celebrating every facet of the human condition. He certainly recognised the true value of enjoying life with trusted friends. At Barclays Wealth we understand this and whatever your aims and aspirations we'll help you achieve them. To find out more call 0800 851 851 or visit barclayswealth.com today.

All applications will be processed in order of receipt.

All ticket prices include VAT.

A handling charge of £2.50 applies to all orders.

Please check the box office daily for any venue changes.

All details are correct at the time of going to press. We reserve the right to change programmes and artists if circumstances dictate. In the event of cancellations tickets will be refunded. Tickets cannot be accepted for refund or resale. The management reserves the right to refuse admission.

Access

To book wheelchair space in performance venues, reserve a parking space (blue badge holders only), or if you require a BSL interpreter please inform the Box Office staff when booking your tickets.

All venues, restaurants, cafés, bar and bookshop have wheelchair access and most performance venues are fitted with an induction loop. Disabled access toilets are available on site.

We continue to work to give deaf and hearing-impaired readers greater access to the Festival than the induction loops which are sometimes skewed by the aluminium structures of our tents.

We will be providing lip-speaking interpreters and palentyng at various events during the festival subject to demand. Please notify the Box Office of your requirements when booking tickets and we will endeavour to provide the best service possible.

If you need any assistance on site, please ask a steward.

Please remember

The Lost Child Point is at the information desk in the Hay Fever Space.

Nappy changing facilities are available in the toilets on site.

Late-comers will not be allowed into their seats until a suitable break in the performance.

Audio recorders, cameras and mobile phones may not be used in the performance venues.

No smoking indoors anywhere on the Festival site. No dogs allowed except Guide Dogs.

All children must be accompanied, unless an event is designated sign in/out.

A paramedic is on duty at all times during events.

Visitors to Hay Festival may be filmed and/or photographed for future promotions of the festival.
